

Il était une fois un poisson qui rêvait de liberté. L'ancien, un très vieux poisson lui raconta une histoire sur la mer. Un jour, le petit poisson s'échappa.

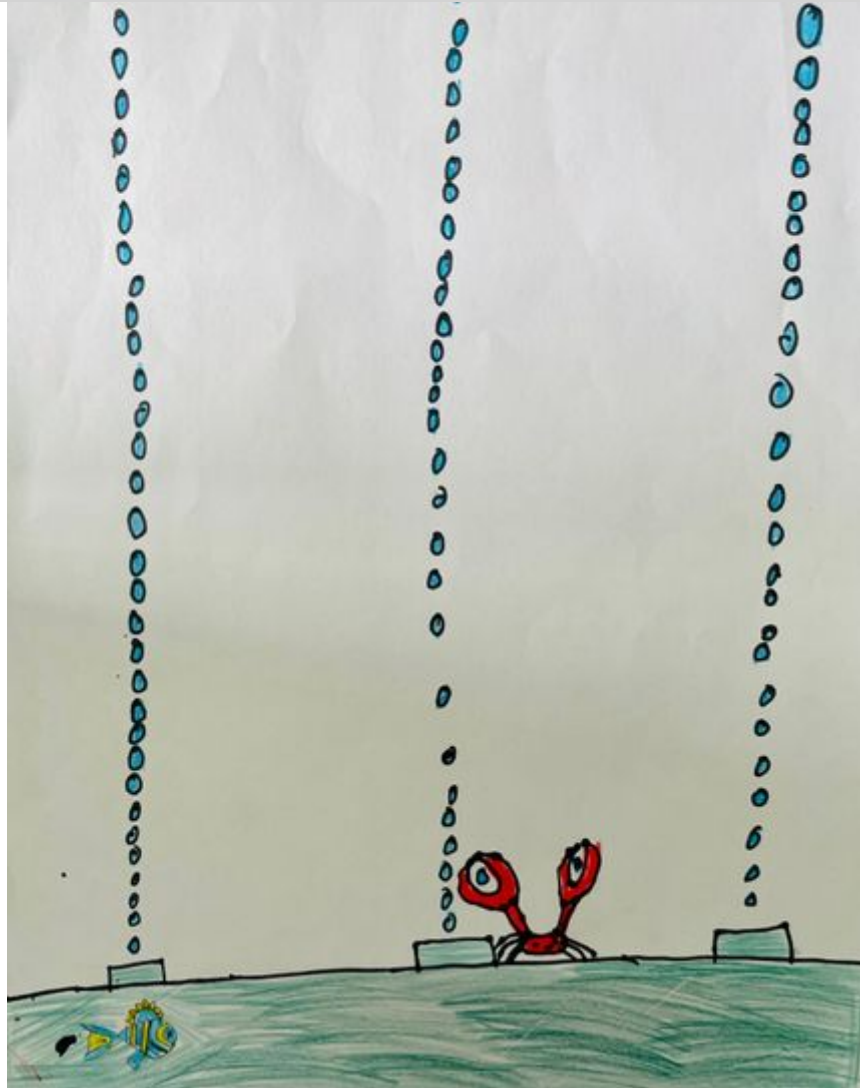

Once upon a time, there was a fish who dreamed of freedom. A very old fish told him a story about the sea. One day, the little fish escaped.

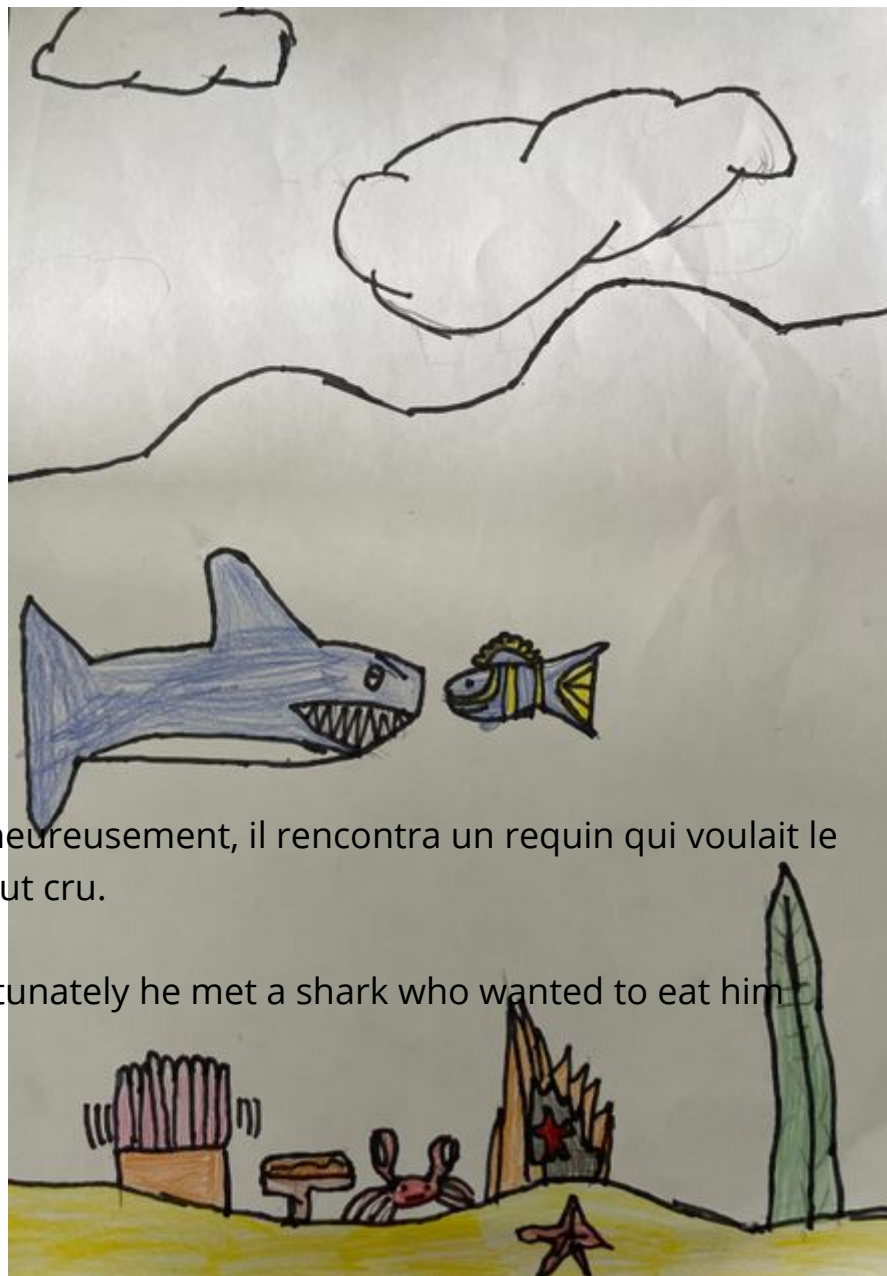

Il nageait dans les égouts et devait choisir le bon tuyau.

He was swimming in the sewers and had to choose the right pipe.

Il sortit par les bouches d'aération. Puis, il partit à la recherche d'un ami.

He went out through the air vents. Then, he went and looked for a friend.

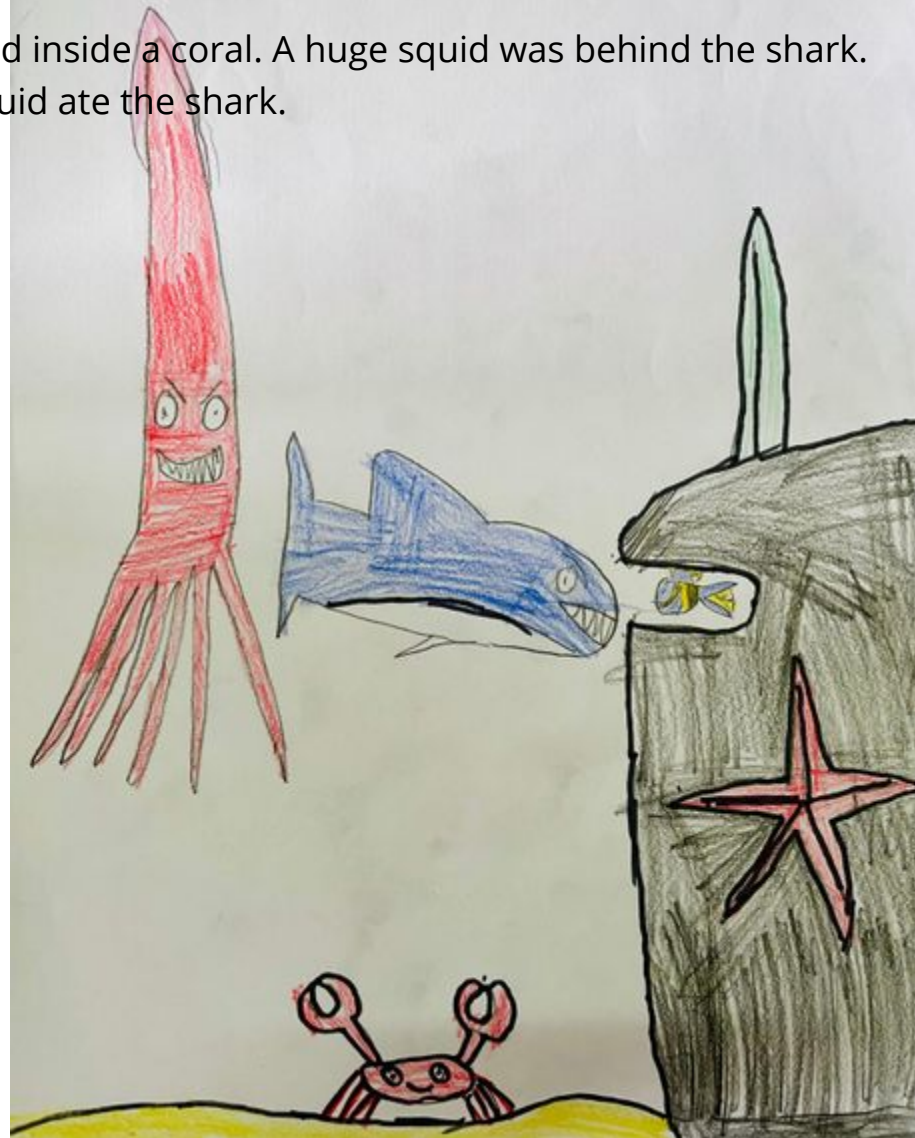

Mais, malheureusement, il rencontra un requin qui voulait le dévorer tout cru.

But, unfortunately he met a shark who wanted to eat him alive.

Alors, il se réfugia dans un corail. Un calamar géant était derrière le requin. Et, le calamar dévora le requin.

Then, he hid inside a coral. A huge squid was behind the shark. And the squid ate the shark.

Depuis ce jour, le calamar et le petit poisson devinrent inséparables.

Since that day, the squid and the little fish have always been together.
